100th birthday party!

We're The Young Women's Movement, Scotland's national organisation for young women and girls' rights, and we've been making change for 100 years.

Join us for a free afternoon of celebration, creative workshops and food, as well as a chance to make friends and share your thoughts to help us re-imagine Scotland for young women and girls.

This event is open to all young women and girls, and people of marginalised genders who feel comfortable in a space that centres the experiences of young women and girls, aged 14–25 years old. We can help with travel costs to the event in some cases.

Whether you've been part of our movement before or if you're just hearing of us for the first time, we'd love to see you there.
