Purpose

The Young Women's Movement is Scotland's national organisation for young women and girls' leadership and rights: working collectively, leading meaningful change and creating a more equal society. Young women are at the heart of everything we do. Our movement is informed, shaped and led by and for young women. For 100 years, we have been a collective force that has, and will continue to, change things for the better for all young women across Scotland. We work directly with young women and girls to equip them to lead change on issues that matter to them and create safe spaces where they can gain confidence, knowledge and skills. We support young women to amplify their voices in their communities and in decision-making spaces.

Our Community and Campaigns Coordinator is a new role and the postholder will coordinate the development and delivery of youth-led communications and campaigns that grow The Young Women's Movement's reach, influence and community across Scotland. This role has been developed to help young women move from audience members to contributors, from contributors to movement leaders.

Working at the intersection of campaigns, community-building and digital communications, the postholder will identify emerging trends, build relationships with creators and influencers, support young women to develop communications skills to ensure The Young Women's Movement remains relevant, visible and impactful across the platforms young women use most.

This contract is fixed term for 12 months. Towards the end of the contract, the impact and effectiveness of the role in this proposed format will be assessed with the post-holder.

Everyone who works at The Young Women's Movement:

- Has equality at the heart of everything they do.
- Takes a participatory approach to our work. We are for young women and by young women.
- Builds communities of friendship and support networks, finding joy in our collective actions and connections.
- Understands the impact of challenging inequality on those most affected by it. We lead with kindness and empathy, putting collective wellbeing at the core of our organisation.
- Delivers our work with integrity and are proud of the work we do.
- Is bold and brave. We do not shy away from challenging the status quo and taking radical steps to make gender equality a reality in Scotland.

Why you should want to work with us:

- We operate a 4-day working week which means full time is 28 hours.
- We are supportive of flexible working arrangements in addition to the 4-day week.
- Our annual leave entitlement is 28.5 days a year, including 6 public holidays.
- We offer an additional day of leave to celebrate your birthday.
- The organisation closes between Christmas and New Year, with no impact on your annual leave entitlement.
- We offer access to counselling and other health and wellbeing support through our EAP provider YuLife.
- We are committed to supporting staff development through training and coaching opportunities.
- We offer a range of enhanced feminist policies, including fertility, maternity and menopause support.
- We are a supportive, collaborative and feminist team and board.

Don't meet every single requirement?

Studies show that women and Black, Asian & Minority Ethnic people are less likely to apply for a job unless they meet every qualification¹. So, if you're excited about this role but your experience doesn't align perfectly with the job description, we'd love you to apply anyway. You might just be the perfect person for this role, or another role within The Young Women's Movement.
